

GSA Public Buildings Service

April 13, 2012

Mr. Robert A. Peck

Dear Mr. Peck,

According to a General Services Administration Office of Inspector General report, you participated in the 2010 Western Regions Conference at which excessive and inappropriate spending occurred. One of the wholly improper expenditures incurred at the conference was $1,960.00 for a party you held in your room at the M Resort. It is unconscionable that the American taxpayer should bear this cost. You are responsible for this unacceptable expenditure; therefore, I demand that you make payment in the amount of $1,960.00.

Your check should be made out to the General Services Administration and mailed to the following address:

General Services Administration
Miscellaneous Receipts for Non-Federal Claims
PO Box 979009
St. Louis, MO 63197-9009

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Linda C. Chero".

Linda C. Chero
Acting Commissioner

GSA Public Buildings Service

April 13, 2012

Mr. Jeffrey Neely
[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Neely,

According to a General Services Administration Office of Inspector General report, you participated in the 2010 Western Regions Conference at which excessive and inappropriate spending occurred. One of the wholly improper expenditures incurred at the conference was $2,717.09 for a party you held at the M Resort. It is unconscionable that the American taxpayer should bear this cost. You are responsible for this unacceptable expenditure; therefore, I demand that you make payment in the amount of $2,717.09.

Your check should be made out to the General Services Administration and mailed to the following address:

General Services Administration
Miscellaneous Receipts for Non-Federal Claims
PO Box 979009
St. Louis, MO 63197-9009

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Linda C. Chero".

Linda C. Chero
Acting Commissioner

GSA Public Buildings Service

April 13, 2012

Mr. Robert Shepard

Dear Mr. Shepard,

According to a General Services Administration Office of Inspector General report, you participated in the 2010 Western Regions Conference at which excessive and inappropriate spending occurred. One of the wholly improper expenditures incurred at the conference was $922.90 for a party you held in your room at the M Resort. It is unconscionable that the American taxpayer should bear this cost. You are responsible for this unacceptable expenditure; therefore, I demand that you make payment in the amount of $922.90.

Your check should be made out to the General Services Administration and mailed to the following address:

General Services Administration
Miscellaneous Receipts for Non-Federal Claims
PO Box 979009
St. Louis, MO 63197-9009

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Linda C. Chero".

Linda C. Chero
Acting Commissioner